

The Lisa Ross Parker Foundation Announces Scholarship Winner

AHS Senior Jonathon Damron is Selected for 2008

BRENTWOOD, TN – May 15th, 2008 - The Lisa Ross Parker Foundation is pleased to announce the winner of the 2008 Lisa Ross Parker Memorial Scholarship. The scholarship is awarded to a graduating senior from Adamsville High School (TN) and started last year with the Class of 2007. The $2,000 scholarship goes to a student that has been touched by cancer within their immediate family (parents, siblings, grandparents or legal guardian) and is given out each May.

Lisa was a 1986 graduate of Adamsville High School, which is located in West Tennessee (McNairy County). She was a cheerleader at Adamsville High School, played basketball and also ran track. She was very involved with extracurricular activities in both high school and college.

The winner of the scholarship for 2008 is Jonathon Damron of Adamsville High School. Jonathon was involved with high school sports, 4-H and was also on the Jr. High and Sr. High honor rolls. He is also a very active member of his church. He plans on attending Austin Peay State University and wants to major in psychology.

Tommy Ross, Lisa's father, presents the 2008 Lisa Ross Parker Memorial Scholarship to Jonathon Damron.